Prayer and Liturgy

THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS:

Zechariah 9:9-10

Psalm 145:1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13-14

Romans 8:9, 11-13

Matthew 11:25-30

Today's Gospel speaks of our need to be gentle and humble of heart. St. Francis de Sales notes:

Take care that gentleness and humility are found within your heart. Little by little, bring your quick mind around to being patient, gentle, humble, and affable in the midst of the pettiness, childishness and imperfections of others. Humility and gentleness are true and good when they preserve us from the inflammation and swelling that injuries usually cause in our hearts.

One of the best exercises in gentleness that we can perform is in ourselves. Reason requires that we must be displeased and sorry whenever we commit a fault. Yet when we do so, we must refrain from bitter, gloomy, spiteful and emotional displeasure with ourselves. We correct ourselves much better by calm, steady repentance than by harshness. These fits of anger against ourselves spring from our self-centered love that is disturbed and upset at seeing it is imperfect. If I had seriously committed a fault, I would correct my heart in a reasonable, compassionate way and say: "Alas my poor heart, here we are, fallen into the pit we were so firmly resolved to avoid! Well, we must get up again and leave it forever. Let us start out again on the way by trusting in God. God will help us and we will do better."

When you are inwardly peaceful, perform as many acts of gentleness as you can, no matter how small and do all you can to develop a spirit of compassion. As long as reason rules and peaceably chastises, corrects, and warns, even though firmly and exactly, everyone loves and approves it. If we find ourselves aroused to anger we must call for God's help like the apostles when the wind and the storm tossed them about. This life is only a journey to the happy life to come. We must march as companions united in gentleness, peace and love.

(Adapted from the writings of St. Francis de Sales, especially, J. Power and W. Wright, Francis de Sales, Jane de Chantal, Paulist Press.)

Also, the parish has purchased large-print Sunday Missals to help you worship. If you would like one for your personal use contact Jo-Ann Duggan at jduggan@saintjn.org or 703-860-6149.

When you call to add a name to our prayer list, please leave your name and number as a contact and let us know what the illness is. ADORATION AND EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

"Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; For my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me" John 6:54-57

Come adore Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, this amazing gift he has left to us on our journey, our 'true food'! This coming Thursday we will have exposition and adoration from 3:00 – 8:00pm. A sign-up sheet is on the Welcome Desk.

Should you want to get reminder e-mails about our monthly adoration contact the Liturgy Office – 703-860-6151 or e-mail pbartnick@saintjn.org.

NEXT WEEKEND'S READINGS: Next weekend we celebrate The Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Please prepare for Mass and the Homily by reflecting on these texts from God's Word:

Isaiah 55:10-11 In the context of a call to conversion, this image emphasizes the power of the word of God which always realizes the promises of salvation.

Psalms 65 The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest. This is a psalm of thanksgiving hymn of the community – the people acknowledge that they are worthy of divine forgiveness; they then offer praise for God's power over nature.

Romans 8: 18-23 All of creation is wounded by sin, awaiting the revelation of the children of God. Through them creation itself will be freed from its slavery.

Matthew 13:1-23 Faced with an apparent setback in His preaching, Jesus wants His hearers to share in God's perspective. Jesus' work will end in success. When He finds a piece of good earth, the sowing will bring forth an incredible harvest. To strive to be this most fruitful earth is to comprehend the parables.

WELCOME, MAGGIE! St. John Neumann is happy to welcome Maggie O'Donnell as the Coordinator of Children's Catechesis (Pre-k-5th grade) beginning tomorrow, July 10. Maggie has taught theology at Montgomery Catholic Preparatory School in Montgomery, Alabama and served in the Office of Faith Formation at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Mobile, Alabama. LIVE JESUS COMMUNITIES FOR YOU Live Jesus! Communities are groups of individuals interested in exploring Salesian Spirituality through fellowship, prayer, reflection, and service. These communities seek to continue the practice of Salesian Spirituality presented in the annual Live Jesus! Conference through small group discussion.

Community groups meet in members' homes, once a month for one and a half hours. The average group has eight members; groups meet weekdays or weekends, daytime or evenings. For more information, please contact Carol Swiger at clswiger@aol.com

The boys will be selling donuts on the morning of July 23, after the 7:30 and 9:30am Masses. The troop is also looking to grow and expand and would love to talk to any of the young men of our parish, ages 10-16, who might consider joining our boy-led organization where they can grow in leadership, learn outdoor skills and experience the great outdoors.

Thanks to all who have supported their efforts in the past. Boy Scout Troop 124 has used the funds to support outdoor camping programs, service projects and donations back to our own parish community.

THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

NUMBER PLEASE...WHAT'S YOURS?

The Catholic Church believes that immigrants should come to the United States lawfully, but it also understands that the current immigration legal framework does not adequately address the needs of families separated by national borders. The Church supports immigration reform that would increase the number of visas available to facilitate family reunification.

SJN Weekly Stewardship

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION "For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." MATTHEW 11:30

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion of what He has already given to us.

Who will separate us from the love of Christ?
